FOUR HURT IN SMASH

Electric Car and Blue Bus Come Together at Braddock.

THREE IN HOSPITAL

All of Injured Will Recover—Bus Hurled Across Track—Front Damaged.

Four persons were injured at 3:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon when a bus of the Alexandria Motor line known as the blue bus line and a southbound car over the Washington-Virginia Railway collided at North Braddock Station, a short distance north of the corporate limits of the city. Three of the injured persons who were in the bus are still at the Alexandria Hospital today, and were reported to be improving. All will recover.

Those injured are: Thomas Coleman, driver of the bus, who lives at Lloyd, cuts and back injured; Thelma Rosson, thirteen years old, of Del Ray, Arlington county, left arm broken; Mrs. William B. Richards, North Braddock, cuts and bruises; Frank Beech, conductor of the electric car, received an ugly cut on the back of the head and he had his injuries dressed at the Alexandria Hospital after which he left. All of the injured persons were treated by Dr. M. D. Delaney.

Both the bus and train were coming toward Alexandria at the time of the accident. Immediately following the accident, the injured were taken in passing automobiles to the hospital. It was at first reported that one person had been killed as the result of the collision. As a result of the accident, the front part of the big bus, which was not moved till late last night, was badly battered in and its two front wheels were smashed. Only the front part of the machine was damaged. The front of the electric car was also damaged.

At the time of the collision the register of the bus indicated that there were twelve passengers aboard and here were only seven persons on the electric car. Norman Legg was motorman of the electric car. A. Coleman it is stated, was knocked from his cab in the machine, the vehicle being thrown across the track about fifteen feet, striking a telegraph pole nearby. The electric train was enroute to Mount Vernon.

INDICT THIRTEEN

Nine Are for Alleged Violations of Prohibition Law.

A grand jury in the Corporation Court late yesterday afternoon returned thirteen indictments, nine being for alleged violations of the state prohibition law. No true bills were returned in five cases.

The indictments returned follow: Henry Wilson, colored, grand larceny from the store of Jacob Blankin; Henry Wilson, colored, grand larceny from the store of W. T. Farley; Stephen Smith, colored, entering the residence of F. T. Quinn; John Javins, forging the name of Robert Elliott to check for $15.

Those indicted for alleged violations of the state prohibition law follow: Lang C. Rorer, Henry Clay Smith, colored; John Jackson, colored; Peyton R. Ballenger, Robert Hutchinson, R. E. Hix, J. S. Lucy, William Jones, colored, and Dennis Harris, colored.

John Javins, charged with forgery, entered a plea of guilty to petit larceny and was sentenced to serve nine months in the city jail.

The grand jury, after making a probe into the two fires Saturday night which destroyed the warehouses of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation and the Mutual Ice Company, was adjourned over without making a report, nothing tangible being presented to the jury on which to make a report.

The body of Sergt. Samuel J. Haynes, who was killed in action in France October 6, 1918, will arrive in New York tomorrow according to a telegram just received by his sister, Mrs. J. Reynolds, of the Cameron Apartment.

IMPORTANT MEETING

Retail Merchants Association Tomorrow, Friday Night

Chairman R. E. Knight, of the Retail Merchants' Association, announces a meeting for tomorrow, Friday night, 16th instant. It is expected that a large attendance will be present, as matters of great importance will be up for discussion and action. Every member in the city, who is a member of this association should make it a point to be on hand

In fact it is a duty he owes to his city as well as himself, not only to be present, but to take an active part. The business transacted by this important body of Alexandria's leading merchants is always in the line of improvement to the city, and its people, and every man imbued with civic pride should consider himself as obligated to push it along as best he can.

GIRL SCOUTS TO MEET ON FRIDAY

There will be a meeting of the Girl Scouts tomorrow night at 7 p.m. in St. Paul's Parish Hall. The meeting will be on Friday nights here after, because of school work. All scouts are urged to be present.

Some of the songs made up by the Girl Scouts, while at the camp, are very interesting and show quite a bit of originality. Here are some:

(Tune "Katy").

Oh, Mrs. Caton! Oh, Mrs. Caton
You're the only, only girl that we adore!
And when our "tummies" begin to growl, then—
We'll be waiting with our old tin plates for more! More! More!

(Sung to show gratitude to Mrs. Caton for her work as mess sergeant).

(Tune "Katy").

Oh, Mother Blunt, dear! Oh, Mother Blunt, dear!
You're the only, only girl that we adore;
And when our throats get so awful thirsty
We'll be waiting with our old tin cups for more! More! More!

(Sung to show gratitude to Mrs. Blunt for same).

(Tune, "My Bonnie").

Our camping days are over,
And they have been filled with such fun;
We're healthier, rosy and better,
And feel that our week's been well done!

(Chorus)

Bring back, bring back,
Oh, bring back my camp days to me!
Next year!
Bring back, bring back,
Oh, bring back my camp days to me!

(Sung Stunt Night).

(Tune "Marjie").

My little captain,
We're always dreaming of you, Captain—
We'll tell the world we love you.
We won't forget your kindness to us—
We have brought our plates and cups and everything, for camping—
You've been our inspiration,
Days are never blue;
After all is said and done,
There is really only one—
Oh! Captain, 'tis you.

(Sung Stunt Night).

(Tune "Keep the Home Fires Burning).

Keep the camp fires burning—
While the Scouts are learning—
How to be a better girl,
As the days roll by;
There's a silver lining,
Through each dark cloud shining,
Turn the dark cloud inside out
Till the Scouts go home.

(Sung Around the Camp Fire).

AUDREY ALLEN.

DEATH OF MRS. OSTHOFF

Her funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon from her late residence. Services will be conducted by Rev. Percy Foster Hall, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and burial will be in Rock Creek cemetery, Washington. She was a native of Sante Fe, New Mexico, and had lived here for the past three years.

PROHIBITION IN U. S. SEEMS A JOKE TO FRENCHMAN

New York, Sept. 15.—Gaston Monnet, traveling investigator of a French brandy concern, considers prohibition, thus far, in the United States something of a joke. He expressed the opinion there is more drunkenness in the United States and Canada than anywhere in the world, before he sailed abroad the French liner Paris.

"I have visited every nation in the world studying liquor conditions," said Monnet, "and nowhere have I found the drunkenness that prevails today in the United States and Canada. The country showing least drunkenness is Sweden, where the Government supervises liquor distribution successfully under a new card system."

TEN DEAD, SCORE HURT

Naptha Still Blows Up at Refining Works in Philadelphia.

EXPECT MORE DEATHS

Broken Pipe Near Furnace Thought Responsible for Accident—Identification Difficult.

Philadelphia, September 14 (Special).—Ten men were killed today and more than a score of others burned, eleven so frightfully that some will probably die, in the briefest, yet one of the worst, disasters in the history of the Atlantic Refining Company, when a naptha still exploded. The body of one of the victims was brought down from the top of the towering structure five hours after the explosion, only after firemen had constructed a special scaffold to reach it. All that was left of it was in a kneeling posture, and it was evident that the man had met his death in prayer, his hands over his face in the vain effort to protect his eyes.

A broken pipe or hose connection, somewhere on the outside of the still not far from the furnace, is held responsible by the officials of the company for the accident. The instant the fluid reached the furnace the flames traveled to the tank and the explosion and fire followed.

Only three of the nine dead have been identified, so badly were their bodies charred. The Atlantic Refining Company tonight issued a list of six names of men who have not been accounted for, and it is thought they are the other six dead.

Motor patrols filled with policemen were sent to the place from nearly every downtown station. These, with ambulances, were kept busy transporting the injured, most of whom were taken to St. Agnes' Hospital, the nearest to the plant. There extraordinary steps were taken to save some of the lives of those burned, but not killed outright. A hurry call was sent out for large quantities of ambrine, the paraffin substance discovered during the world war which eliminates most of the agony of surface burns by sealing the exposed nerve end. Cinders and clothing were brushed tenderly from the bodies, quivering with agony, and these were drenched with the pain-killing fluid.

A motor patrol, laden with turned men, was speeding toward the hospital when a tire blew out. The men were so terribly burned that they could not stand the jar of running on a flat tire. Accordingly, they were transferred to motor cars and other patrols that followed with others of the injured.

Most of those near enough to catch the full force of the flames were beyond the aid of medical science when workmen, themselves blackened and blistered by the heat, fought their way to the motionless, charred bodies. These were picked up with difficulty and taken to the morgue, where the work started of trying to make identification by what was left of rings or jewelry.

The bulk of the naptha in the tanks burned out within an hour, but the residue continued to blaze until much later, despite the combined efforts of city and plant firemen.

During most of that time the firefighters devoted their energies to the task of preventing the spread of the flames to the fifteen remaining stills, each of which contained many thousand barrels of the highly refined fluid. Steady streams of water were kept pouring on these stills and on the pipe lines through which, when it was deemed safe, the naptha was drawn off slowly by emergency draining systems.

Even when the final flare of the flames died down it was impossible for firemen to approach the still in which the explosion occurred. All metal parts were still so hot that when water struck them they gave off clouds of hissing steam.

"Third Man" Arrested in Handcuff Murder

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Milton H. Walker, former garage foreman and a close friend of Harvey W. Church, was arrested yesterday and acclaimed as the "third man" in the handcuff murder of Bernard J. Daugherty and Carl Ausmus, automobile salesmen.

Church and Leon Parks, who was a watchman at the same garage where Welker worked, have signed confessions to their part in the killing of the two men last week. Clarence Wilder was arrested as the third man implicated in the murders, but has denied that he had any hand in the plot by which Church, Parks and the mysterious "third man" hoped to obtain a new automobile and sell it, dividing the profits. Wilder was named by Church and Parks in their signed confessions.

STATE NEWS

Petersbnrg, VA., Sept. 14—Without giving any warning to bystanders, George Moore, one-legged veteran of the world war, aged about 26, of 933 Rome Street, attempted to take his life in a Sycamore Street pool-room here today by swolling a bichloride of mercury tablet in a glass of water. He was taken to the Petersbnrg Hospital and will recover, he having failed to swallow enough of the poison dose.

Bristol.—A crusade against Bristol bootleggers, based on a program that is expected to relieve a condition that has become serious is promised in the next week by a number of leading men. Several organizations, including the Chamber of Commerce and the ministerial association, are planning to take a hand in the campaign.

Stories of boys in their teens, and in some cases young girls of the better families, drunk in automobiles late at night, have aroused the people here to propose drastic measures to rid the town of the "whisky ring." The authorities do not deny that the forces at their disposal are inadequate to meet the situation and a mass-meeting may be called to discus means for starting the campaign.

Staunton, Va., September 13.—That England wants the friendship of America, and that the sooner this country realizes it is best for her and for world relations to "stick by our buddy on the other side in all big questions" the better it will be was the message Albert Shultz brought to Staunton Rotarians today.

Mr. Shultz has just returned from the International Rotary Convenion held in Edinburgh, Scotland, and in a brief address he gave his fellow-Rotarians an interesting report of the social side of the convention and a glimpse of conditions in Europe as he saw them through personal observations and through the eyes of Rotarians of keen insight into such things.

Charlottesville.—The University of Virginia will open its first session following its centennial celebration last June with what is expected to be the largest enrollment in the history of the institution. September 15, 16 and 17 are devoted to registration and lectures in all of the six departments will begin September 19.

Advanced applications submitted to the office of the dean are considerably in excess of the number of applications for the same time last year. During the session of 1920-21 the institution's enrollment reached 1,721, with thirty-eight states and seven foreign countries represented. This session the number of students is expected to reach 2,000, according to James M. Page, dean of the university.

Newport News.—Residents of the nearby town of Kecoughtan, Elizabeth City County, are battling an epidemic of chicken thieving. Roost after roost has been completely cleaned during the dark hours of the night within the past several weeks, and attempts to put an end to the thieving have thus far proved futile.

The unemployment situation is blamed by some for the activity of the chicken thief or thieves.

Petersburg, September 14.—The Norfolk and Western railroad, through J. R. Ruffin, freight traffic manager, announced today that the railroad would make a reduction in its freight rates on domestic grain and grain products originating in the central west.

Richmnod, Va., September 14.—Police headquarters received word yesterday afternon that Edward Meanley, seventeen, jumped from a train and was killed while being taken to Baltimore to attend an industrial school.

It is reported that he so disliked going to school that it was deemed best not to force him to attend school here. He was a member of a prominent family.

Richmond, September 14.—Owing to the absence from the state of one of the jurors, the coroner's inquest into the death of Mrs. Sue Tinsley Hadley, wife of Dr. Wilmarth Amos Hadley, whose body was found in James river, near the Westham bridge in Henrico county, on December 30, 1918, was posponed today by County Coroner J. Fulmer Bright to Wednesday, September 21, at noon.

Staunton, Va., September 14.—Just how much colored women can wiggle the shimmy without overstepping the border line of ladylikeness into the forbidden realm of disorderly conduct was put squarely up to the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals for decision at the opening session of the court here yesterday morning in the case of Pope against the commonwealth.

Pope is the owner of a negro dance hall or cabaret in the city of Norfolk. To stimulate patronage, it is said, he procured cabaret dancers of color to shake themselves for the delectation of his patrons. The scheme aparently worked very well until it came to the attention of the Norfolk authorities. At this juncture Pope was arrested, tried, and convicted of running a disorderly house.

DEEP PROBE OF CASE

Coroner's Jury Accuses "Fatty" Arbuckle of Manslaughter.

ATTEMPTED BRIBERY

Detective Captain Declares Witness Is Offered Money to Withhold Testimony—Other Developments in Case.

San Francisco, September 14.—The coroner's jury returned a verdict today holding that Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, came to her death through peritonitis, caused by the rupture of an internal organ.

Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle was held responsible by the jury for Miss Rappe's injury and the district attorney was directed to conduct a full investigation of the matter. The verdict charged Arbuckle with manslaughter and directed that all official sources concerned conduct a full and exhaustive investigation.

Urge City's Good Name Be Protected.

The jury held that Miss Rappe came to her death through the application of force, "which we believe from the evidence was applied by Roscoe Arbuckle and we hereby charge him with manslaughter."

"We recommend that the district attorney, chief of police, grand jury and prohibition enforcement officials take steps to prevent a further occurrence of such events so that San Francisco will not be made the rendezvous of the debauche and the gangster."

Ben Boas, one of the nine jurors, returned a minority verdict in which he said that Miss Rappe's fatal injuries were caused by the application of some force, "but I am unable to say who applied it."

Two charges of murder, one preferred by the police and the other by Mrs. Bambina Maude Delmont, friend of Miss Rappe, and two charges of manslaughter, one returned by the grand jury and the other by the coroner's jury, rest against Arbuckle.

The coroner's jury was out for more than three hours after an examination of witnesses which started last Monday.

Arbuckle although apparently deeply moved, accepted the verdict with composure.

The verdict was the outstanding event of the Arbuckle case today. Other developments were:

The starting of an investigation into charges that liquor was brought to and served at the Labor Day party in Arbuckle's hotel rooms, where Miss Rappe was alleged to have suffered the attack which ended in her death.

The finding of Betty Campbell, show girl, and one of those attending the party, after she was reported to have disappeared and her interrogation by the district attorney.

The statement of Captain of Detectives Matheson, that one of the girl witneses who had attended the party had been asked to accept a bribe to withhold her testimony.

District Attroney Matthew A. Brady said he had not decided what course to pursue in regard to the murder complaint, in view of the manslaughter charges, but would settle the matter before Friday, when Arbuckle appears in police court to plead to the murder charge.

The grand jury indictment for manslaughter is to be returned in the Supreme Court tomorrow.

Sleepwalking Defense Wins Woman Freedom

Lancaster, Pa., September 14.—Mrs. Clara Kibler of Neffsville, tried on a charge of murdering her husband, John C. Kibler, as he lay asleep in bed last May 12, was acjuitted this morning. The jury went out about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and found a verdict soon after midnight, after taking five ballots. On the first ballot seven were for acquittal and five for conviction. How the five were made to change their view is a jury secret.

The commonwealth sought conviction on the ground that the accused deliberately planned the murder. The defense was a plea of somnambulism, claiming that the shots were fired while the woman was dreaming of a burglar's approach.

Oden-Fifield Nuptials

The marriage of Miss Willa B. Oden and Mr. R. A. Fifield was quietly solemnized September 14, 1921, by Rev. Howard F. Downs at 308 A street northeast, Washington, D. C. Mr. Fifield is a prominent young lawyer of Remington, Va., of which town the couple are residents. Mrs. Fifield is a niece of Mrs. J. T. Preston, and has numerous friends and relatives in Alexandria, where she has frequently visited.

RAILWAY TAX REPEAL 1923

Senate Finance Committee Cuts Transportation Levy in Half.

EXPRESS RATE STANDS

Assurance of Further Cut in Expenses by Dawes Has No Effect. Disagrees With House.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The Senate Finance Committee moved on today toward completion of its work on the Tax Revision bill by rather unexpectedly continuing for the calendar year 1922 one-half of the present passenger and freight transportation taxes, with a provision that they should end on January 1, 1923

The bill as it passed the House provided that all transportation taxes should end on January 1 next. The Finance Committee had previously decided that the other two forms of transportation taxes, express and oil pipe lines should be continued at full rate, and today it made that decision in a formal way, so that the Tax Revision bill as it will come from the committee will be in conflict with the bill as it passed the House on all four forms of transportation taxes.

The decision to continue all of these taxes, contrary to the action of the House, was especially surprising in view of the fact that Chairman Penrose, of the Finance Committee, today gave out a letter he had received from Budget Director Dawes, assuring him that the savings agreed on at the White House conference, which settled the approximate amount to be raised under the House bill, would actually be realized.

It was decided at that conference to cut down the expenditures during the year by $520,000,000. Of that $170,000,000 was to be postponed payments of Treasury obligations maturing in this fiscal year and $350,000,000 was to be savings. Director Dawes wrote Senator Penrose that $305,000,000 of the $350,000,000 savings is in sight, and he can rely on the other $45,000,000 being saved in one place or another. The $305,000,000 in sight is made up of $60,000,000 in the War Department, $100,000,000 in the Shipping Board, $89,000,000 in the railroads, $37,500,000 in the Veterans' Bureau and $18,500,000 miscellaneous.

The effect of Director Dawes' statement that $350,000,000 will actually be saved, in addition to the $170,000,000 payments put off, strengthened the claims of those who hold that the House provided a sufficient total of revenue in the bill that it passed. As the Finance Committee has not knocked out any of the important taxes levied in the House bill, and has put back some minor ones that the House knocked out, the necessity for continuance of transportation taxes had not been regarded generally as having been demonstrated.

In today's session the Finance Committee approved temporarily the House provision laying a manufacturer's tax on cereal beverages and other soft drinks. Final action will be deferred until a report on the matter it had from Dr. Thomas S. Adams, Treasury tax expert, and slight modifications are possible.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Washington, Sept. 15.—According to an official statement of the Treasury Department, $260,779,263 in pennies, nickles, dimes, quarters and half dollars are being carried in the nation's pockets, purses and cash drawers with which to make every-day purchases. This is an average of $2.48 per person. There are approximately $75,292,000 silver dollars in use throughout the country at the present time. The total amount of all kinds of money in use in the United States, including more than $900,000,000 in gold coin, is $5,679,000,000. Most of the big money is in banks and stored in Treasury vaults.

Reformer's Condidate.

Noah W. Cooper's announcement in Nashville that he will be a candidate for United States Senator in Tennessee marks the first definite effort of the reformers to bring the Sunday blue law into national politics. In the forthcoming campaign Cooper, whose proposal for a national Sunday law started much agitation a year ago, will have the support of various reform organizations that maintain paid lobbies in Washington. Cooper will contest the seat of Senator Kenneth McKellar, who is a candidate for re-election. The primaries in Tennessee are to be held next summer and the election in November.

To Drop 2,000 Employees

It is expected that as the result of the economy campaign now being conducted by Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board some 2,000 employees of that organization will shortly lose their jobs. Chairman Lasker said today that his immediate efforts and those of Joseph W. Powell, the new vice president and general manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation were being directed toward a reduction of the cost of running the big plant as a necessary step toward working out the general policy of developing an American merchant marine. Mr. Powell, at the direction of the Board, is now preparing a report on the economies thus far accomplished. It is estimated that a saving of approximately $1,000,000 will result in the cutting down of the pay-roll of the Shipping Board.

More Powerful Than T. N. T.

At the arsenal at Edgewood, Md., it is now possible to match every gas used during the late war and new and more deadly gases are being developed there than the Germans ever dreamed could be manufactured. The Chemical Warfare Service of the U. S. Army has developed the powerful explosive known as Analite, nearly ten times more powerful than the deadly TNT which played such an important part in the World War. Furthermore, officers attached to the Edgewood Arsenal say it is now possible to gas men severely enough to place them in a hopsital for six months at a time without endangering their ultimate recovery and without leaving any ill effects.

Capital and Labor Meet

Great things are expected as the result of the forthcoming conference on the industrial situation which is scheduled to take place the latter part of this month. Delegates representing capital and labor will be invited to the conference and arrangements are now being made by Secretary of Commerce Hoover to bring the two factions into a meeting which will be devoted to an exchange of views and a possible agreement to solve the present unhealthy condition of affairs existing in the industrial life of the country. There is no doubt but that the nation is now experiencing a period of unrest and that the relations between employer and employee are stained almost to the breaking point. Maybe the forthcoming conference will be productive of much good, therefore.

Delinquents Pay $12,000,000.

The government's drive for delinquent and additional sales and miscellaneous taxes under the internal revenue law netted up to September 3 this year approximately $12,000,000. Special attention was given during the campaign just closed to the violators of the tax on soft drinks, transportation, jewelry, theatre admissions and insurance levies. Monthly returns of such taxes were required, but the beneficiaries of them failed to comply with the law.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

And Thought leapt out to wed with Thought, ere Thought could wed itself with speech.

Tennyson.

RELIGION IN BUSINESS

The Gazette is in receipt, almost daily, of press-matter from every section of the United States, that indicates beyond a doubt that the business men of the country are thinking more seriously of religious matters, and putting religion into their daily lives, than ever before,—perhaps in the history of the world.

Roger Babson is one of the foremost statisticians in the country, a man who deals almost exclusively with figures and schedules and matters of the driest abstraction. Yet he is engaged in a veritable campaign for the introduction of religion into all the practical affairs of life, its preaching and its practise, its observance in the shop and the office and on the street—as well as in the home and church.

There is an organization called the "Back to the Bible Society," that is engaged in distributing to the newspapers of the land, all of them, 2600 daily and 16000 weekly, with a total circulation of over 50 millions, texts and quotations from the Bible to be inserted in their daily or weekly editions. These texts are put into matrices so that the paper has nothing to do but to cast them into metal and go to press. Thousands of papers have gladly availed themselves of this opportunity, the Gazette among them, and the result is that the lofty truths and ethical precepts contained in the Book of Books will be more widely read and oftener than ever before. 50 millions of people with these texts reaching them daily will be unquestionably affected and influenced, in time. Of course this species of inculcation is merely an adjunct to the regular work of home, school, and church. But that it will aid all other forms of teaching is unquestioned.

We are inclined to think that a religious wave has swept the whole world, growing out of the horrors of the late war. There were those, and strong men and women, too, whose faith in God was shaken, whose belief in the ultimate triumph of good over evil, of truth over sham, wavered for long periods. Especially during the several forward drives of the Germans, did the whole world seem shrouded in the gloom of Unbelief. But mankind emerged from the terrible struggle, not only with a renewed and strengthened belief in a Divine First Cause, but with the deepest consciousness that this world could not exist without Him.

All the various institutions, associations and agencies are more active than ever before in ethical work and religious propoganda and the signs are most encouraging for a world-movement, including even far-off China and Japan.

One Year of Test

When things used to go wrong in Lynchburg's municipal administration—when they moved slowly, unsatisfactorily, inefficiently, it was no easy task to place the finger directly upon the point of responsibility. The conduct of the city's affairs just drifted along in a way that impeded its development, fettered its government, and bred protest among its citizens. The crux of the trouble however seemed very plain to many who gave serious thought and study to the subject. It resided in wide diffusion of governmental power, and the complexities and delays, born of the condition. Hence came on the movement which had for its slogan: "A business administration of the business affairs of Lynchburg," and which had for its objective the simplification of administration along lines that would so distribute the powers of government as to clearly define and affix the consequent responsibility. Success crowned the efforts of those striving for the organic change, so that the administration of municipal business was committed to a government which in its constitution may well be likened to an executive and a small board of directors. A city manager and a council of five came into power. Here was contemplated so radical a departure from old and accepted conditions that even many who urged and voted for the change, watched with some degree of trepidation the launching of the momentous experiment.

A year has passed since the city manager form of government begun its life—a year doubtless fraught with many anxious moments for those under whose charge the new order was instituted—a year in which Lynchburg's people have watched with unusual interest the test which actual trial provides—a year in which public judgment was withheld pending demonstration of failure or success. This with the result that the entire community is now furnished cause for grateful reflection. The things predicted have become the things realized—the claims made in behalf of simplified administration have been vindicated. This statement rests not upon what one would wish was so, but upon the basis of established fact. The report of City Manager Beck has just been offered in evidence. We confidently venture the opinion that its revelations prove that the first year of the new government is the best governmental year that Lynchburg has ever known. It shows a twelve-month period packed with large achievements, and giving convincing promise for even more fruitful accomplishments in the future.

In Mayor Harper's resume of Mr. Beck's detailed and voluminous report, it is pointed out for example that there has been as much street paving completed during the last twelve months as was done during the preceding six years; that the sewer construction during the past twelve months exceeded that done during the preceding four years; that the length of sidewalk construction during the past twelve months exceeded that during the preceding five years, and that these improvements have had a general distribution over the city which has given betterments to practically every section. In other matters of civic concern such as schools, city parks, play grounds, Mr. Beck's report mirrors a measure of accomplishment along lines of municipal progress and development which may well justify the public's earnest approval for things already done, and its confidence for the future. Not only have these advances been realized, but they have been brought about as result of close and careful attention to details and costs—economy has figured conspicuously in the record, and savings in large sums, as result of careful supervision and management, together with the institution of improved systems of accounting and purchasing; and of the segregation of the water department upon the theory of making it take care of itself and of bonded indebtedness contracted for its development. All of which has enabled the city to go ahead upon its plans of permanent improvement without raising taxes, save to meet imperative school needs.

It may be that it is too early to make up definite conclusion yet as to the merits of the new form of government—but we do not think so. Mr. Beck has shown what can be accomplished under the present plan of administration. What can be done for one year can eb done for another year Nay more, as result of experince and observation it is fair to assume that as time goes by, we may expect even larger benefits to be realized as result of simplification in administration, than those witnessed during the past twelve months. While it is manifestly true that the force and reasonableness of this proposition depends upon the continuance of the grade of experienced sucessful business men such as are now responsible for the government of the city, yet by very reason of the object lesson afforded by the service of Mr. Beck and the present Council, the people of Lynchburg should logically be the more determined in the future that just such type of citizens shall be continued in control of municipal affairs.

IRISH NEGOTIATIONS MEET FRESH DELAY

London, Sept. 15.—An unexpected delay has arisen in the Irish negotiations. Premier Lloyd George, who is at Gairloch Scotland, today received Harry Boland, secretary to Eamonn de Valera, and Joseph McGrath another Sinn Fein representative, according to an official communication issued last night Messrs Boland and McGrath are returning to Dublin with the Prime Minister's explanation of certain points in the Government's proposal for consideration by the Dail.

It is said that Mr. de Valera's reply dealing with the question of accepting or not accepting the invitation to a conference will not be delivered until Friday or Saturday.

It is understood that the letter which Couriers McGrath and Boland bore to the Prime Minister asked for a fresh explanation respecting the British Government's latest communication and that these points are of vital importance, necessitating the return of the couriers to Dublin for consultation with Mr. de Valera and his colleagues.

Yesterday's conference lasted an hour or more the delegates leaving immediately for Ireland. The new developments will delay the proposed conference between the Governmnt and Irish plenipotentiaries beyond September 20, the date suggested by Mr. Lloyd George. Apparently nothing has been definitely decided as yet on the composition of the Irish delegation. Michael Collins, commander of the Irish Republican Army is mentioned now as a possible delegate and it is still possible that Mr. de Valera will consent to head the delegation.

The Big Town Round-Up
Story by Wm. McLeod Raine
Directed by Lynn F. Reynolds

The romance of a brawny ranchman and a society belle.

A picture with the speed of light and the sure-fire interest of a government bond.

Story of a cowpuncher who makes the big city sit up and take notice.

A romance in which Mix plays a long game of hide-and-seek with Death.

In which brain and brawn and bravery battle for a bride.

One man against many—that's Mix in his latest.

A drama in which romance, born on the plains, reaches full growth in the big city.

He rounded up cattle on the ranch, but rounded up thugs in the town.

ENGLISH CORN LAWS LONDON LETTER

London, June 23, 1813.

Our main object is to inform you that a bill is about to be brought into Parliament, founded on a report and certain resolutions of a committee of the House of Commons, appointed to enquire into the state of the Corn Laws. The resolution to which we are desirous of calling your attention is the 9th, and is thus expressed:

"That it is expedient that no Wheaten Flour, or meal of wheat, nor any corn ground, nor any malt, should be imported into any port of the United Kingdom, from ports beyond the seas."

If this resolution forms a clause of the bill, and the bill is passed into a law, there will be of course an end to the traffic in the article of flour which has heretofore existed betwixt our country and yours.

The Dreadnaughts have booked for the coming Sunday the fast team from Charlottesville, headed by Snead and Calloway, the latter the mainstay of the University of Virginia team. They are coming here determined to knock the big Ds off. From the advices the Ds have this team has defeated the strongest teams in the state and the battery, composed of the Calloway brothers, defeated the Richmond team of the Virginia State League a short while ago. However, at the clip the Ds have been traveling it will take more than reputation for Charlotesville to cop. As this is the first team from the state that the D's have been able to book this season they are sure to have a large crowd, as from advance dope practically all of Charlottesville is coming down to see these teams in action. Frye will work for the Ds. Also Behrle, the new third sacker, will play his initial game for the Ds. Come out and look him over. He will make you forget some good ones you have seen. Sunday on Baggett's Field at 3 o'clock.

Do It Now!

So many coal consumers have delayed putting in their Winter coal this season that there will be an urgent demand when the weather gets cold which will make it impossible for the mines to produce, the railroads to haul or the dealer to handle all orders as satisfactorily as the trade will want.

It is our advice to all consumers to enter their order now and have their coal put in as promptly as possible.

HOW WOMEN AVOID SURGICAL OPERATIONS

Some Are Extremely Necessary, Others May Not Be

Every Woman Should Give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Trial First

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bedwith a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to any one who wants a personal letter."—Mrs. E. H. HAYDOCK, 6824 St. Lawrence Ave., Chicago, Ill.

A Vermont woman adds her testimony to the long line of those fortunate women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after it had been decided an operation was necessary:

Burlington, Vt.—"I suffered with female trouble, and had a number of doctors who said that I would never be any better until I had an operation. I was so bad I could hardly walk across the floor and could not do a thing. My sister-in-law induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it certainly has helped me wonderfully. I keep house and do my work and have a small child. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to a number of my friends and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. H. R. SHARON, Apple Tree Point Farm, Burlington, Vt.

In hospitals are many women who are there for surgical operations, and there is nothing a woman dreads more than the thought of an operation, and the long weary months of recovery and restoration to strength if it is successful.

It is very true that female troubles may through neglect reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same. When disturbing ailments first appear take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. In fact, many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

"Standard" Motor Gasoline has remarkable pulling Power

GASOLINE that delivers full power and maximum mileage is not the product of chance but of the choice of crude stocks, skillful refining and constant research.

Gasoline properties are determined by a large number of factors. It is only by the closest study that the exceptional pulling power of the improved "Standard" Motor Gasoline is obtained. Our Development Department not only devotes a large share of its work to refining processes, but is also constantly checking up the actual performance of "Standard" Motor Gasoline in various types of motors, in the laboratory and out on the road.

The power obtainable from gasoline depends largely on its burning properties, on how much of it fires and how much fails to ignite, thus lowering the explosive force of the whole mixture. The composition of "Standard" Motor Gasoline is positively predetermined with a view to insuring its complete combustion at motor temperatures.

Thousands of critical motorists have given this "Standard" Motor Gasoline a thorough test under all sorts of conditions. They say that it supplies an unusually even, smooth flow of power, and gives exceptional mileage.

"Standard" Motor Gasoline is on sale wherever you see the familiar "S. O." sign. It is the cheapest gasoline per mile you can find.
